2 Background

2.1 About Uttarakhand

Uttarakhand was formed on 9th November 2000 as the 27th State of India, when it was carved out of northern Uttar Pradesh. Located at the foothills of the Himalayan mountain ranges, it is largely a hilly State, having international boundaries with China (Tibet) in the north and Nepal in the east. On its north-west lies Himachal Pradesh, while on the south is Uttar Pradesh. The state is divided into two divisions, Kumaon and Garhwal, with 13 districts. The capital of Uttarakhand is Dehradun, which is also a railhead and the largest city in the region.

The State is rich in natural resources such as forests, glaciers, rivers etc. and is also gifted with almost all major climatic zones, good rainfall, good rail and road communication, technical educational facilities, research laboratories, management institutes, etc.

With a view to catalyse growth in industrial sector especially Micro, small & medium enterprises (MSMEs), the industries which aim to utilise resources available in Uttarakhand and which can generate employment for local inhabitants are being classified as thrust areas. The state has identified focus areas, viz. Food Processing, Horticulture, Herbal & Aromatic, Tourism & Hospitality, Wellness & AYUSH, Pharmaceuticals, Automobiles, Sericulture & Natural Fibres, IT, Renewable Energy, Biotechnology, Film Shooting, for expediting industrial development in the state. MSMEs globally have been proven as the growth engine of manufacturing and large employment generators and are also going to play a significant role in the growth of output and prosperity in the State.

2.2 Objective

Directorate of Industries, Department of micro, small & medium enterprises (MSME), Uttarakhand in its endeavour to promote industrial activity and MSMEs in the State to accelerate the State's output and create employment opportunities, plans to promote existing and create new growth centres and industrial clusters leveraging schemes of Central Government and Government of Uttarakhand.

In this backdrop, the state plans to establish a Program Management unit (PMU) to identify clusters/ industrial centres, develop diagnostic survey reports (DSRs), Detailed project reports (DPRs) and implement the projects in the state.

2.3 Scope of Work

The Scope of Work for the proposed engagement will primarily consist of the following modules:

- a) Establishment of Program management unit
- b) Identification and profiling of MSME clusters
- c) Development of Diagnostic Survey Reports (DSRs)
- d) Development of DPRs for viable clusters
- e) Stakeholder consultations and workshops
- f) Implementation support for the approved DPRs and projects

The detailed scope, team composition and project duration would be defined in the RFP stage.
